THE CHAMBERLIN FREE PUBLIC LIBRARY.

George F. Merriam, Chairman,
William C. Greene, Secretary, } Trustees.
Herbert J. Taft, Treasurer,

Charles T. Wheeler, Librarian.

TRUSTEE'S REPORT.

The Library has been open for the exchange of books, according to its rules, every Saturday during the year. Miss Cora B. Robbins was continued in office as librarian until her resignation, Sept. 5th. Miss Hattie L. Robbins was then employed until the opening of the Reading Room with magazines and papers for the further accommodation of the public. This was done Oct. 27th and its advantages have been continued every secular evening since, with few exceptions, the whole under the charge of Mr. Charles T. Wheeler.

The action of the town in accepting the provisions of the act concerning Free Public Libraries was promptly reported to the State Board of Library Commissioners. Application was duly made for the State grant of books and all the requisite forms complied with. We have hoped that under a liberal construction of the statute our request might receive favorable response, and we have still reason for cherishing such hope. On this account the purchase of new books has been delayed, but a list of desirable works has been carefully prepared and valuable additions may soon be expected.

The seventy-seven volumes sent away for rebinding near the close of last year were early in the season returned to their places, and two new books have been presented by Mr. James B. Fry.

The trustees wish to express gratitude to their fellow citizens for such generous answer to their appeal for contributions in aid of the Reading Room. Over one hundred dollars were cheerfully pledged. Our list of monthly magazines has included The North American Review, The Review of Reviews, The Century, Harper's, Scribner's, Good Words, Outing, The Cosmopolitan and The Quiver. The Weekly Tribune, The World, Puck and The Judge have been regularly put before their readers, also the daily issues of the Boston Journal, Herald and Globe. Our recent esteemed townsman, Dr. G. F. Munsey, during his stay contributed Harper's Weekly and the Manchester Daily Union. Mrs. H. I. Whitney has put The Popular Science Monthly upon our reading table. Others have gratuitously furnished such papers as The Household, The Independent, The Congregationalist, The Christian Union, The Farmer's Cabinet, The Peterborough Transcript, The Fitchburg Sentinel and The Statesman.

The Selectmen have kindly given the use of their room and favored us with numerous other courtesies. The place is now well provided with chairs and all other needful furniture, and affords an attractive evening resort for our youth as they seek the culture of larger acquaintance with current literature. Besides, the magazines are soon given out and are as eagerly sought as any books. Some of them when bound will become a valuable addition to the Library. Your trustees believe the matter of importance and hope for far reaching results. They recommend that the enterprise be permanently sustained by the town. Let us be liberal in the equipment of our children for a good fight in the battle of life.

Respectfully submitted by the Trustees.

REPORT

OF THE

SCHOOL BOARD

OF

GREENVILLE, N. H.

REPORT.

The School Board would report as below:

The East School has been kept for 36 weeks during the past year and the town of Mason has paid one-half of the expense. This has seemed a fair adjustment and to the advantage of both towns. The school has done good and satisfactory work. The average attendance in this as well as in the South School is remarkable in view of the fact that the school-houses are at long distances from the homes of some of the pupils.

The South School has been open for the summer and fall terms. It did not seem wise to maintain it during the winter for a probable attendance of three or four pupils only. It may even be well in the future to close this school for a portion of the year, at least, and transport the pupils to Greenville.

The graded schools in the village have passed a successful and pleasant year. There has been nothing to seriously interfere with the studies, and they have gone on with marked steadiness and spirit in all the rooms. It has been necessary to add new subjects for a class of advanced pupils in the upper room. English and American Literature, English History and Algebra are not usually found in Grammar Schools, and the course as at present conducted takes pupils at least two years into the work of the average High School. Where the number of pupils is small this arrangement is the best that can be made, but the variety of studies in our so-called Grammar grade is too great. It crowds the scholars and overworks the teacher. So soon as the number of possible pupils justifies the expense, a distinct and separate High School should be opened. The Intermediate and Primary Schools are graded more closely than before and are in good condition.

The Board have had the rooms painted, the ceilings whitewashed and the whole inside of the building made neat and comfortable.

As a reward and encouragement a record is here given of those neither absent nor tardy.

For one term: Mary Batchelder, Elsie Willard, Ernest Russell, Edith Douglass, Ethel Pierce, Mary E. Munsey, George W. Doonan, Herbert J. Doonan, Etta Ritter, Alfred Conley, Irving Hodgman, Charles Douglass, Tracy A. Eaton, Orrin Eaton, Cornelius Sullivan, Gertrude Phelps, Myrtle Sawtelle, Myrtie E. Heald.

For two terms: Lily G. Allison, Elizabeth Hastings, Annie N. Ames, Willis Parker, Ida Ames, Emma S. Ames, A. Marian Kingsbury, Victoria Conley.

For three terms, Merton Sanborn.

For three years, Adrian V. Hall.

Following is given a table of statistics and results. All of which is respectfully submitted.

WM. C. GREENE,
H. J. TAFT,
School Board.

THE CHAMBERLIN FREE PUBIC LIBRARY.

George F. Merriam, Chairman,
Herbert J. Taft, Secretary and Treasurer, } Trustees.
Charles T. Wheeler, Librarian.

TRUSTEE'S REPORT.

Early in the past year, one hundred and three volumes were added to the library and an alphabetical catalogue of the new books printed. Soon after, one of the trustees, Mr. William C. Greene, left the state and his associates wish to put upon record their testimony to his generous and valuable services. Upon invitation of the state board of library commissioners, the application of the town for the state grant of books was presented at Concord by a trustee in person and the authority of precedent urged for liberal interpretation of the law in our behalf.

It has been the effort of those in charge to make the library as useful as possible. Since the first of June it has been open for the exchange of books Wednesday evenings, as well as every Saturday of the year. With enlarged privilege, the volumes taken out for home reading have considerably increased. In accordance with the town's vote, a free reading room has continued to offer its advantages to all with leisure and disposition to improve them. Until the beginning of summer this was done every secular evening, unless the place was needed by the selectmen. During subsequent months the room has been opened as a resort for reading but four days each week. Experience inclines your trustees to recommend this plan for the year before us. Then the town officers have two evenings left, free from intrusion, for their weekly or bi-weekly meetings.

While two daily papers are still provided for the open evenings, the popular interest is rather in the local weeklies, or illustrated journals and monthly magazines. Hence, alternate evenings and the large opportunities of Saturday afternoon and evening will serve our present needs and the expense becomes light. The magazines are soon permitted to go out and made to pass round as rapidly as possible. They are more in demand than the books and remain an important contribution to the future growth of the library. We think it a matter of great importance that our youth should feel the constant stimulus of the freshest thought in literature and artistic illustration. No other investment will yield us such profitable returns as that which is wisely adapted to the best culture of those who are so soon to be in the places of power.

Our magazine list, with but few changes, remains the same as last year, but should be further enlarged. Many papers and some magazines have been gratuitously furnished, for which special thanks are due. Those whose names were mentioned in our last report as donors of books and other literature have continued their good habit. Mr. James B. Fry has added another volume to his previous gifts and Mrs. Henry I. Whitney still places the Popular Science Monthly and the Woman's Journal upon the reading-room table.

Particular reference should be made to a contribution from Dr. George F. Munsey, of Suncook. It is a very grateful token of kind remembrance, as well as a most meritorious public service, when those who have been associated with us are in their absence still moved to such generous gifts. Let our own liberality make our library a living power for the community and in due time, as in other favored towns, munificent friends may appear, to give it a more commodious home.

REPORT

OF THE

OF

GREENVILLE, N. H.

REPORT.

The school board hereby submit their annual report according to custom. The past year has been notable in several particulars: the frequent change in teachers, necessitated by illness and other causes, and the prevalence of the epidemic measles, during the fall term, rendered the work of public instruction less profitable than usual, by causing irregularities of attendance on the part of the pupils, and by diminishing their attendance to such an extent as to compel the closing of the grammar school two weeks earlier than we had intended.

The south school has been open only one term during the past year. Before the winter term we could find only two or three scholars who would attend under any circumstances. We therefore deemed it advisable to to pay for transportation to the village rather than attempt to have a school there.

The east school has been open thirty-five weeks during the year and the same financial arrangement made with the town of Mason last year has been continued this year. This school shows a larger percentage of attendance than any other school in town. The board thought best to freshen and brighten the interior of the building, which has added to the comfort of both teacher and pupils.

The village schools, as has been suggested before, have been considerably broken up and have suffered more or less in consequence. The average number of pupils has been less than usual, and the average attendance much less.

ROLL OF HIGHEST HONOR.

NAMES OF PUPILS NOT ABSENT OR TARDY.

For one term: Ida M. Ames, Edith Douglass, Ethel E. Pierce, Waldo Adams, Alfred Doll, Alma Chrétien, Adrian V. Hall, Irving E. Hodgman, Lester L. Livingston, Orrin Eaton, Elmer Russell.

For two terms: Hattie Livingston, Robert Douglass, Charles E. Douglass, Frederick E. Pierce, Grace M. Robbins, Mary Robbins, George Doonan, Herbert Doonan, Tracy Eaton, Merton Sanborn.

For three terms: Nina M. Doonan.

Respectfully submitted,

HERBERT J. TAFT,
VICTOR L. PARKER,
FRED B. HUSSEY,

School Board.
